

Troop XV Campout

TVD Spring Camporee

April 24-26, 2009

Departure: Friday evening, 6:00 pm, April 24, from Canyon Creek area (corner of FM 1417 & Lamberth) in Sherman.

Arrival: Camp James Ray, about 30 minutes.

- Your Field Uniform will be required during travel, flag ceremonies, chapel and dinner. Your Troop XV T-shirt will be worn during the day on Saturday. Non-scout related apparel and electronic devices are prohibited on Troop XV outings.
- Plan to eat dinner at home before departure. Patrols will have crackerbarrel after camp is setup.
- This year's Spring Camporee theme is "Back to Basics" and is being overseen by Troop 66. All activities have been coordinated around this theme.
- On Saturday, patrols will be competing in Scout games against other troops. These events require scout skills and teamwork to compete. Skills needed include knots and lashings, teamwork and Scout Trivia. Games on Saturday are as followed: Obstacle Course/Knot tying, Axe Throw, Team Building, Noodle Wars, Fire Building/Flap Jack Cook-off, Shelter Building, and Boy Scout Trivia.
- There will be a campfire Saturday evening where awards will be given out. Immediately after the awards, the Order of the Arrow will perform a Call Out Ceremony.
- All patrols, please organize your personal gear, tents, food, and cooking (Saturday breakfast, lunch, dinner, and Sunday "no cook" breakfast).
- Scouts, remember to reimburse your driver for gas money.

Departure: Sunday morning, April 26, about 10:00 am, from Camp James Ray. We plan to arrive in Sherman around 11:00am
